Re: Complaint, challenging the appearance of the name Barack Obama on the March 6 Democratic Presidential Preference Primary Ballot

Dear Secretary of State Kemp,

I am a registered voter and elector at the above address in Cobb County, GA.

Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 21-2-5, I hereby challenge the Constitutional eligibility of Barack Obama to appear on the March 6 Democratic Presidential Preference Primary Ballot and/or on the November 6, 2012 general election ballot for President of The United States.

This challenge is proper and ripe under O.C.G.A. § 21-2-5, as Barack Obama is a candidate for federal office who has been certified by the Executive Committee of the Democratic Party of Georgia in their letter of November 1, 2011, and as the deadline for notifying the Secretary of State of candidacy for the Presidential Primary is October 31, 2011, as set in O.C.G.A. § 21-2-193.

On information and belief, and in support of this challenge to Mr. Obama's eligibility, I respectfully show as follows:

- (1) The official state certified birth certificate proffered by Barack Obama contains a factual inconsistency and other anomalies that calls into question the veracity of the rest of the information contained within said document.
- (2) Barack Obama has not adequately proven that he was born a natural born citizen of the United States.

- (3) Barack Obama's alleged father, Barack Obama, Sr., was never a citizen of the United States and, at the time of his son's birth, was not a permanent resident of the United States. Consequently, Barack Obama was born to only one parent who was a U.S. citizen or U.S. permanent resident.
- (4) By his own admission, and under the British Nationality Act of 1948, Barack Obama was born a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies, and from 1963 until at least 1984 was also a citizen of the Republic of Kenya.
- (5) Due to his dual citizenship with the United Kingdom and with Kenya, Barack Obama was born with dual allegiances to foreign nations other than the United States of America.
- (6) Such additional evidence as may be shown at the hearing of this case.

It therefore appears that Barack Obama does not meet the Constitutional requirements for seeking and holding the office of President of the United States because:

- (a) Mr. Obama is not a natural born citizen, as required by Article II, Section 1 of the United States Constitution.

Accordingly, I hereby challenge Mr. Obama's qualifications to seek and hold the office of President of the United States on these grounds. I respectfully request that you notify Mr. Obama of this challenge and that you request a hearing before a judge of the Office of State Administrative Hearings.

Respectfully,

David P. Welden
